

Meridian Jet Center Chosen as Honeywell Exchange/Rental Parts Depot

TETERBORO, NJ, March 10, 2008

Meridian Jet Center, a private aviation services company, has been selected as the new Teterboro Exchange and Rental Parts Depot for Honeywell. Meridian's successful role as a Honeywell authorized serviced center for TFE731 engine and 36 Series Auxiliary Power Units supports the new branch of their partnership with Honeywell. The companies share a mutual commitment to best provide their New York and New Jersey customer base with exceptional rental and exchange services.

"We are very excited about partnering with Honeywell on this parts depot," said John Langschultz, VP Meridian Jet Center. "This new service will allow Meridian to better serve our current and future customers."

Honeywell will continue to process all customer orders and Meridian Jet Center will fill all exchange deliveries.

Meridian Jet Center's FAA approved 145 repair station is located in their 40,000sf hangar. The Meridian, award winning maintenance crew is available 24/7. Headquartered in Teterboro, New Jersey, Meridian is an award-winning full service private aviation services company. Established in 1958 and with business roots originating in 1946, Meridian is still privately owned and operated today. Meridian's accumulated expertise offers a complete suite of professional aviation services:

- Meridian Jet Center-FAA authorized repair station
