

Meridian Teterboro's Repair Station Expands Approved Aircraft

Meridian adds capabilities to repair station.

February 12, 2001 -- Meridian Teterboro's repair station recently received authorization to perform maintenance on Raytheon's Hawker, Dassault's Falcon 50 & 900 and Canadair's Challenger series aircraft. In addition, the repair station is currently approved for maintenance on Cessna 400, 500, 600 series, Gulfstream 1159 series and Learjet 20, 30, 45, 50 & 60 series aircraft. John Langschultz, Manager of the repair station noted, "With the addition of the Hawker, Falcon and Challenger series aircraft to our certificate we will be able to support both our repair station clients and transient clients better while they are at our Teterboro facility."

Meridian is a full service FBO offering aircraft fueling services, aircraft maintenance, aircraft charter and a flight training center.
