FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MERIDIAN PROMOTES PATTI PEREZ TO MANAGER OF INFLIGHT SERVICES

Teterboro, NJ, February 18, 2014 – Meridian, the award-winning private aviation company based at Teterboro Airport, is pleased to announce that Patti Perez has accepted a position as Manager of Inflight Services for Meridian Air Charter. Ms. Perez came to Meridian in 2011 with 8 years of industry experience. In her previous role as Client Services Manager, Ms. Perez was instrumental in provisioning Meridian Air Charter fleet aircraft, as well as having responsibilities for inventory management and specialty items to ensure availability upon request.

In her new and expanded role, Ms. Perez will continue to perform these functions with the added responsibilities of assisting with flight attendant hiring, training, and oversight; creating aircraft cabin policies and procedures; and maintaining a client database with passenger preferences. Emil Iannone, Director of Operations, says, “As we continue to grow our charter fleet, Patti will be a key to our continued success by maintaining our impeccable level of inflight service that our clients both deserve and expect. She is an integral part of our Charter team and her work directly impacts how we are perceived by our customers.”
