

Meridian Jet Center Receives Falcon 2000 Series Certification

November 30, 2006, (Teterboro, NJ) - Meridian Jet Center, NJ based Private Aviation Serviced Company is proud to announce they are now certified for Falcon 2000 series aircraft maintenance. Meridian's professionally staffed jet center is certified to repair and maintain Learjets, Falcons, Challengers, Hawkers and Gulfstreams. Repairs on other aircraft are available on request.

Meridian is an approved Honeywell Line Service Center and EASA certified.

"The Meridian Jet Center is Falcon 50 and Falcon 900 certified; the 2000 certification further solidifies Meridian's knowledge of Dassault Falcon Jet aircraft", noted John Langschultz, Vice President Meridian Jet Maintenance.

Meridian Jet Center has been servicing aircraft for 50 years. The superior level of experience and training Meridian offers has been awarded. Ten Meridian Mechanics received the FAA Diamond award this year for dedicating time to improving their skills through training. Meridian Jet Center's John Bahrenburg received the NBAA outstanding service award for 41 years of dedicated service.

Fittingly, Meridian received Falcon 2000 certification in conjunction with the new acquisition of an 8 passenger Falcon 2000 to the Meridian Air Charter fleet.

Monumental steps in the company's growth were marked this year with the opening of the state of the art 30,000 square foot terminal and the unification of the company's operation as a complete suite of professional aviation services under the Meridian brand:

- Meridian Teterboro-FBO Services
- Meridian Jet Center-FAA authorized repair stations
- Meridian Air Charters
- Meridian Aircraft Managements
- Meridian Jet Center Detailings
